

Name: _____

The Union in Peril

Pages 304-331.

Underground Railroad	Stephen A. Douglass	secession	Wilmont Proviso	popular sovereignty	James Buchanan	Harriet Tubman	Harper's Ferry	Abraham Lincoln	Franklin
Pierce	Fugitive Slave Act	Jefferson Davis	Dred Scottt	Confederacy	Harriet Beecher
Stowe	Bleeding Kansas	Republican Party	Millard Fillmore	John Brown	Kansas-
Nebraska Act	John C. Fremont	Free-soil Party	Roger B. Taney	nativism	Compromise of
	1850	Know-Nothing Party

Across

3. political party that opposed expanding slavery. Later will split and the majority will become Republicans
6. President 16. Dislikes slavery
8. President 14, Democrat
10. a compromise by Henry Clay that allowed the North to have California become a free state and the South gets a stronger fugitive slave law
14. formal withdrawal from the Union
15. network of safe houses and people who helped slaves escape into the North or Canada
23. a Democrat, who runs against Lincoln in Illinois and for the Presidency
24. CSA, or Confederate States of America. The title of the Southern states that seceded from the Union
25. slave from Missouri, Dred Scott v. Sandford
26. name of the sectional conflict in Kansas, prequel to the

Down

1. founder of the Republican Party, first Presidential candidate of the Republican party.
2. favoring of native born Americans over new immigrants
4. escaped slave, most famous conductor on the Underground Railroad
5. President of the Confederacy
7. Chief Justice of the supreme during the Dred Scott court case
9. political party that when asked about policy stated 'I know nothing.' Will split after first election.
11. political party founded by Fremont, opposed slavery
12. right to vote for an idea
13. writer of Uncle Tom's Cabin
16. A strong law that forced all people to return escaped slaves into bondage
17. written by Stephen Douglass to allow Kansas and Nebraska to either be a slave or free state based on popular sovereignty
18. place where John Brown tries to seize an arsenal and arm slaves to free them selves. Fails.
19. President 15, Democrat. Considered worse President of all time.
20. President 13
21. a failed idea that slavery would not be able to spread into new territories gained from Mexico
22. radical abolitionist who attack Harper's Ferry