

Name: _____

Social Movements in the US 1800s

Complete the crossword below. Pages 240-258.

Dorothea Dix	Second Great Awakening	abolition	Utopian Community	Frederick
Douglass	Transcendentalism	Lucretia Mott	William Lloyd Garrison	Sojourner Truth	gag rule	Nat Turner	Seneca Falls Coventions	Grimke Sisters	Emancipation	Revival temperance movement	Ralph Waldo Emerson	Civil disobedience	Antebellum	Elizabeth Cady Stanton

Across

- 2. A social reformer that tries to improve conditions for the mentally ill
- 5. effort to prohibit or ban alcohol
- 6. a community that tries to make a perfect society
- 9. A religious revival movement beginning after 1790; emphasizes individual responsibility and the insistence that people can improve society
- 10. white radical abolitionist editor of the The Liberator
- 13. A New England writer who is a transcendentalist
- 14. led a slave rebellion in Virginia, Fails
- 16. emotional meeting to awaken religious beliefs
- 18. runaway slave who becomes an abolitionist and worked with Garrison
- 19. a women's movement and abolitionist who befriended Lucretia Mott. Holds the Seneca Falls Convention
- 20. freeing of slaves

Down

- 1. an ex-slave women who preached for Women's rights and the abolishment of slavery
- 3. philosophical and literacy movement that emphasized living a simple life
- 4. convention in 1848, that wanted equal rights with men
- 7. a rule limiting or preventing debate on an issue
- 8. peacefully protesting something or law that you do not believe in
- 11. daughters of a South Carolina slaveholder who spoke out against slavery
- 12. pre- Civil war South
- 15. a women's movement and abolitionist who befriended Elizabeth Cady Stanton. Holds the Seneca Falls Convention
- 17. the call to outlaw slavery